

Port Congestion Surcharge for Export Cargo from/via US West Coast Effective November 17, 2014 - SUSPENDED

November 18, 2014

Sea Shipping Line would like to update our customers that the previously announced Port Congestion Surcharge (PCS) on all cargo moving to or through all US West Coast ports has been postponed until further notice. Sea Shipping Line continues to closely monitor this situation and ask that you watch for further updates.

Thank you for your continued support. Please contact your Customer Service or Sales Representative if there are further questions regarding this advisory.

Respectfully,

Sea Shipping Line
