Who We Are

Sea Shipping Line, a globally integrated, Non-Vessel Operating Common Carrier (NVOCC), is a federally licensed and bonded Ocean Transport Intermediary with over 37 years of global shipping expertise. Our core competency is moving FCL – Full Container Loads – internationally.

How We Do It

Extensive carrier confidential contracts, state of the art quote system technology, and close overseas partnerships enable us to move cargo between any point in the United States to any point worldwide. Our strong international network insures that our excellent service extends beyond the USA.

Why Use a FCL NVOCC

A full container load (FCL) is an ISO standard container that is loaded and unloaded under the risk and account of one shipper and only one consignee. Utilizing the entire container minimizes the risk of damage, minimizes the risk of pilferage, minimizes packaging expenses, and maximizes the safety of goods at a transshipment point.

Partnering with a FCL NVOCC can offer the following benefits:

- Relationships with Multi-modal Networks
- Higher Levels of Customer Service
- Working with Multiple Shipping Alliances
